

Inter-library loans. Service for libraries

Inter-library lending terms and conditions

Each loan is for 30 calendar days counted as of the date the document leaves the library. Special documents are provided in the form of reproductions, whenever this is possible. The following documents are considered to be special: reference works, periodicals, dossiers, non library material and any other document the loan of which involves a risk for its conservation.

Documents must be consulted within the centre that receives the loan. The Library that borrows these works shall have sole responsibility for their adequate conservation.
